

Darija Dialect

Darija is mainly spoken in:

Morocco

Algeria

Darija is a group of Arabic dialects spoken in North Africa. It differs from Classical Arabic (or Modern Standard Arabic) in its vocabulary, pronunciation, and the influence of languages such as Berber, French, Spanish, and Italian.

Around 70 million people speak Darija in various Maghreb countries.

Maqam Echahid

Communs expressions:

Salam → Hello

Labass ? → How are you? / Everything okay?

Saha → Thank you

Bessaha ! → Cheers! / To your health!

Mzyan → Good / Well

Wakha → Okay

Smahli → Sorry / Excuse me

Kayen chi mochkil ? → Is there a problem?

Nta/Nti mnin ? → Where are you from?

Mosquée

Hassan II

